SAFELY KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE
Beware of Fraud.
Unscrupulous parties have tried to imitate our Remedy and deceive the public by using SIMILAR NAMES, but do not be deceived; see that the word SAFE with picture of an Iron Safe, on black wrapper and white letters is on every package. Also, see that it is on the label and stamp, and take no other.

H. H. WARNER & CO.
ROCHESTER, N. Y.

ES-This remedy is an absolute specific for the diseases of women; for the nervous troubles, youth, and for the debility which precedes old age. As statistics show that all diseases arise from the kidneys or liver, we can guarantee freedom from disease by reason of the power which our Safe Kidney and Liver Cure possesses over these organs. For Diabetes ask for WARNER'S SAFE DIABETES CURE.

Information was received here yesterday morning from Clay's Ferry that the river was again rising at that point. We may look for an overflow of Clay yet.

Our Stoney Creek correspondent was mistaken last week with regard to the weight of the hogs purchased by Mr. N. Dalton. They averaged 131 pounds instead of 120, as he had it.

Capt. John Milan is the only remaining member of the McCreary Guards who went out with the company, the first time they were ordered into active service, to go to Lancaster to guard Grove Kennedy in 1877. All the rest have either moved away from the city been, promoted, or left the service.

A corps of engineers will begin Monday making a preliminary survey for the route of the Frankfort, Paris and Georgetown Railroad from this city to Georgetown. Mr. Mead, the gentleman in charge of the work is now in the city making his arrangements, and the work will be pushed along rapidly.

A young German Bohemian by the name of Albert Heindl, who has been employed at the confectionery of Mr. Louis Weitzel for the last six or eight months, while attempting to take an empty shell out of the cylinder of a pistol, Thursday afternoon, accidentally shot himself in the left hand, the ball striking him in the palm of the hand and coming out at the back near the wrist, inflicting a painful wound.

Bridgeport Vicinity.

FEBRUARY 8th, 1883.

I cannot wait to see what Scovendyke may have to say about the school business in the vicinity of Bridgeport, but wish to say that I am almost in full accord with your correspondent in last Saturday's issue. Right well do I remember Prof. Moore's Bridgeport Seminary, as also Belle Colline College, and most sincerely do I regret that one of them is not in existence at this time. It would be a big thing for the community. The first thing a man inquires for, when about to move into a new neighborhood, is about churches and schools, and I cannot, for the life of me, tell what has come over the members of the once prosperous Franklin Church. I do hope their zeal in the cause of Christ has not rusted away until there is none left. I do hope they have reached the bottom and my earnest prayer is, that they may revive and when they do so revive old Belle Colline Seminary as well as old Franklin Church, and make her a power for good in the land. I agree with your correspondent. Let us lay a piece of good build a parsonage and school-house upon it—the Franklin Seminary. Call a preacher who can preach, work and teach. And right here is a field for a preacher and teacher. I say God speed the day when these things shall return. Your correspondent has my hearty thanks, for his timely suggestions. I feel like I can shake hands with him and call him Brother.

Oysters, celery, turkeys, and chickens at J. M. Banta's to-day.

We were shown the other day, by Mr. Robt. McMillan, of this county, a singular looking corn cob, half of which was white and the balance red. The most singular thing about it was that every grain of corn upon it was white.

Monterey, Owen County.

DEAR MR. EDITOR:

Situated in a lovely valley, surrounded by towering cliffs, not far from the grand old stream known as the Kentucky river, is the thriving little town of Monterey. It is a quiet little place, its name being seldom seen in the newspapers, unless a fight or a robbery is committed within its limits. But we are determined to come boldly to the front, boys and let our neighboring towns know that "we are not dead but speechless."

Business is dull.

Wheat is looking badly.

No weddings, and poor prospects for any.

Mrs. Dick Barnes is lying at the point of death.

Mrs. John Lawler is very low with heart disease.

Prof. D. S. Booth closed his school here on the 26th ult.

Capt. T. J. Hardin returned home Friday from a business trip to Cincinnati.

Miss Bettie Todd, of Owenton, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. E. T. Calvert, of this place.

Rev. J. T. Burton will preach here next Saturday and Sunday, it being his regular appointment.

Mrs. Judge Fitzgerald has been quite ill for some time with the rheumatism, but is slowly recovering.

Died.—On last Wednesday, of brain fever, after a lingering illness of 17 days, Forest, youngest son of E. T. Calvert, aged 5 years.

Mr. Jeff D. Kale, accompanied by his sister, Miss Kittie, left last Monday for Florida. They will be absent till the first of May.

Miss Fannie McQueen, who has been attending school here, returned home last Wednesday much to the regret of one young man of this place.

Tobacco buyers are numerous in this county. Few crops have been purchased, as the farmers have nothing less than 10 and 15 cent crops.

Rev. J. E. Duvall celebrated his 80th birthday last Friday. There was a family reunion, his children, grandchildren, and great-grand children being present.

Bain Lodge, No. 516, I. O. G. T., which has been sweetly slumbering for the past two years, have determined not to let the enemy outwit them and have reorganized with upwards of 20 charter members. Brave little band, we wish you success.

The many friends of B. D. Hend, especially the ladies, will doubtless be glad to learn that he has neither gone to Texas or got married, but his bright smiling face is still to be seen behind the counter of J. S. Hend, where it is hoped he will remain for many a day to come.

At Revoir.

Kenneth Wagner, Louisville, Ky., says his wife has been greatly benefited by Brown's Iron Bitters.

Bloomington.

Born.—To the wife of Geo. M. Triplett, Esq., November 16th, 1882, a son 12 pounds.—William Nuckels.

Mr. Chas. Howard bought of Judge L. Hord, a few days ago, 28 acres with scarcely any improvements, for $1000. Equal to cash.

Miss Susie Boston, of Frankfort, has been on a visit of several days to friends in this neighborhood. "Why was the poor fellow crying, girls."

Farming lands in this vicinity are much sought after on account of their adaptability to the production of fine barley tobacco, as well as all the cereals, fruits, &c.

Misses Sallie Johnston and Alice McBride, two very popular young ladies of the Cedar Run neighborhood, have been visiting friends in this place. "Come again ladies."

John Wallace, Esq., has been on the war path for several weeks past. However, since Dr. Kuhnabrun extracted an aching tooth he has become more docile, and in a short time will doubtless have something handsome to say to the widow over the way.

Job Smith has recently enlarged his store house, until now it is one of the most capacious buildings in the country. His constantly increasing trade has forced him to make this last improvement. Good goods at reasonable prices, with accommodating clerks, will tell.

A short time ago a bright, intelligent lad, some 12 or 15 years of age, came along and called at the barnhouse of Mr. Anderson, asking for employment on his farm. Mr. Anderson, not really in need of help at the time, was unable to withstand the boy's appeal for employment, by which he could appease his hunger and protect himself from the cold wintry weather, took him in. The following day he asked for and obtained one of Mr. A.'s best horses to ride up to town, as he represented, to get some clothing left there a few days before. He neglected to return either himself or the horse, and after several days of worry and trouble Mr. A. found his horse, but the little rascal had fled and is supposed to be looking out for another kind-hearted victim. Doubtless, in a short time this little rascal will find himself in the walls of a prison where he can be handsomely entertained with Christmas dinners, &c., &c. Let ladies and gentlemen cease this useless "gush" over these murderers and thieves, let the rope be brought into more frequent use, and our penitentiary made a place of punishment rather than of pleasure. Then let the May Convention place in nomination for the head of the ticket and elect in August next a man of ability and nerve, like ex-Governor James B. McCreary, then and not till then will life and property be secure in this once proud old Commonwealth.

SAMUEL AYERS.

FORMERLY OF DANVILLE, KENTUCKY.

WATCH MAKER.

Successor to E. F. Meek, Main Street, Frankfort, Ky., continues the watch repairing business at the old stand. By promptness and careful work he hopes to merit the patronage of those who desire to have their watches repaired without damage being done them. Surveyors' compasses repaired and other instruments requiring delicate and accurate adjustment.

In retiring from business in Frankfort I take pleasure in expressing my entire confidence in Mr. S. Ayers, and from my long acquaintance with him as a workman, do not hesitate to commend him as every way capable of meeting the expectation of my former patrons.

THE CHEAPEST AND BEST GATE IN THE WORLD!

This gate is in use and strongly recommended by Joseph Robinson, Wakefield & West, Taylor Collins, Judge W. L. Pence, Colon M. Jones, and others in this locality. It has been manufactured and used largely in the Northern States for the last six or seven years, and is universally acknowledged to be the most successful gate ever invented.

IT COSTS NO MORE THAN A GOOD COMMON GATE, and yet can always be opened and closed without GETTING OUT. It has been so thoroughly tested there can be no doubt but it will out last any ordinary gate. Send your orders to at once, and enjoy the luxury of riding through your gate without getting out in the mud.
